

Illustrations – Site I

Early World War II photograph of Mokuleia showing uncompleted main Runways 8/26 and 4/22 running at an angle towards the mountain c.
Aug. 1942. 15th Airlift Wing Photo

Dillingham A.F.B. Dec. 1947. 15th Airlift Wing Photo

Dillingham Airfield Runway 8/26 looking east. Author

Route to Kealia Trail. Feature C at top right. Author

Descending stairway of Feature A. Author

Feature A, showing doorway at bottom of stairway. Author

Interior of Feature A looking east, metal rung ladder at upper left. Author

Close up view of light fixture attached to the ceiling inside Feature A. Author

View of east wall of Feature A showing electrical breaker box. Author

Escape hatch housing of Feature A depicting North wall. Author

West wall of housing pictured above showing small doorway on the west side. Author

View looking down the shaft of the escape housing. Author

Feature B. 100,000 gallon water tank. Author

Concrete foundation located southeast of Feature A. Author

Manhole cover situated some 75 feet east of Feature A. Author

Concrete housing for gate valve thought to be part of the water distribution system, located on the east side of gravel road from Feature A. Author

Vertical concrete posts located on east side of gravel road below Feature A. Author

Parachute Riggers at Mokuleia sometime in WWII. Author's Collection

B-24 Liberator bomber at Mokuleia Airfield during WWII. Courtesy of Hawaii Aviation Preservation Society, Colin Perry Collection

Feature C, aircraft revetment. Author

Closer view of Feature C showing height of wall compared to small vehicle. Author

North wall of Feature C-1. Author

Earth revetment (Feature C-2). Author

Feature D (Pump House complex), showing two of three buildings. Author

Feature D-1, looking towards northeast. Author

West end of Feature D-1 showing raised platform recorded as Feature D-1e, thought to have mounted an engine. Author

Northeast corner of Feature D-1 showing from left to right, D-1a, -1b, -1c, and -1d. Author

Feature E, rusted hulk of a Quonset hut, view towards the northeast. Author

Same feature as above, view towards the southeast. Author

15 AW

Dillingham Air Force Base Tower c. 1948. 15th Airlift Wing Photo

Feature G. Site of old control tower. Author

Feature F. Foundations at site of former control tower. Author

Metal turreted pillbox (Feature G) at Dillingham M.R. Author

Underside of Feature G. Author

Interior of Feature G depicting hand crank wheel that moved the cupola. Author

Feature H (Cable Hut S-1) across Dillingham Airfield at the former Mokuleia Army Beach. Author

Reverse side of Feature G showing steel door and window opening to the right. Author

Illustrations - SITE II

Feature 1A (Ammunition Bunker) as viewed from Farrington Highway. Author

Feature 1A. Back or west wall on the left showing louvered vent and spalling to the corner. Author

Photo depicts the doorway at the east side of Feature 1A. Author

Photo depicts detail of barrel hinges to entrance door of Feature 1A. Author

Interior of Feature 1A showing effects of a malicious fire set by vandals. Author

Feature 2A, ten-sided concrete platform thought to be the base of a light machine gun. Author

Underside of Feature 2A depicting medium-sized rocks used in its construction. Author

Feature 3A, thought to be sewer pump ejector housing. Note both manholes. Author

Feature 3A. Close view of front manhole that housed a pipe valve. Author

Feature 3A. View of interior of rear manhole depicting flooding by seawater. Author

Feature 4A, raised concrete platform at the left rear of Feature 3A. Author

Northeast corner of Feature 4A depicting detail and original wartime camouflage. Author

Concrete foundation (not categorized) several yards southeast of Feature 1A. Author